The City of Chelmsford forms the principal commercial and administrative centre of Essex. Chelmsford is well located approximately 30 miles (48 km) north-east of Central London.

The city benefits from excellent communication links with the A12 providing direct dual carriageway access to Central London, the M25 motorway (Junction 28) which is 14 miles (23 km) away and Colchester 24 miles (39 km) to the north-east. The A414 to the south of the city centre provides access to the M11 motorway (Junction 7) which lies approximately 17 miles (27 km) to the west. The A130 to the north of the city centre provides dual carriageway access to Braintree 12 miles (19 km) to the north-east.

Chelmsford also benefits from an excellent rail service with a high speed connection to Central London (Liverpool Street). There are approximately seven services per hour at peak times with a fastest journey time of 32 minutes.

Stansted International Airport is easily accessible, being approximately 18 miles (29 km) to the north-west, via the A120.
